

Fourier
Analysis is

A red double-headed arrow pointing both left and right, indicating a bidirectional relationship or transformation between the two graphs.

